

ACADEMY of INTERNAL MEDICINE

for VETERINARY TECHNICIANS

BYLAWS

Article I - Purpose

The Academy is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The primary objective of the Academy shall be to advance veterinary technicians working within the disciplines included in veterinary internal medicine and increase competence of those who perform specialty duties by:

- A. Promoting interest in and the advanced knowledge and practice standards of technicians in veterinary internal medicine;
- B. Establishing prerequisite requirements for education and experience prior to certification in the specialties of internal medicine for veterinary technicians;
- C. Administering examinations and certifying veterinary technicians as specialists in Veterinary Internal Medicine;
- D. Promoting continued professional development as an obligation of membership.
- E. Promoting continuing education and dissemination of knowledge relating to veterinary internal medicine;
- F. Ensuring the opportunity for the veterinary technician to demonstrate superior knowledge in the care and management of cases within the selected discipline of the specialty of Internal Medicine when credentialed as a VTS (Internal Medicine); and
- G. Conduct any and all lawful activities which may be useful in accomplishing the foregoing purposes.

In furtherance of the foregoing purposes, the Academy shall have all the general powers permitted by the Washington Nonprofit Corporation Act and such other powers now or hereafter permitted by law for a corporation organized for the foregoing purposes, including the power to solicit grants and contributions for any corporate purpose.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this certificate, the Academy is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The Academy is not formed for pecuniary profit or for financial gain and no part of its assets, income or profit shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Academy shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

No substantial part of the activities of the Academy shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except to the extent permitted by the Code pursuant to an election under Section 501(h) of the Code or otherwise, and the Academy shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

In any taxable year in which the Academy is a private foundation as described in Section 509(a) of the Code, the Academy shall distribute its income for said period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Code, and the Academy shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) or the Code, retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, make any investments in such manner as to subject the Academy to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, or make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Article VII – Dues, Fees, Fiscal Matters

Section 1 Dues

Upon recommendation of the Development and Finance Committee and Secretary/Treasurer, and by vote of the Executive Board, all dues of the Academy for the following year will be established at the annual business meeting. Dues are delinquent March 1 and a late fee as set by the Board will be assessed. Email notification of the right to cure will be sent to the delinquent member. If dues are not paid by May 1, membership will be discontinued by email notification, no further notification will be given. Reinstatement of membership status will be granted upon receiving all back dues and completion of all requirements of the Academy if reinstated within 3 years, otherwise reapplication will be required.

Section 2 Fees

Upon recommendation of the Development and Finance Committee and Secretary/Treasurer, and by vote of the Executive Board, all fees of the Academy for the following year will be established at the annual business meeting. Fees are payable at the time of services rendered.

Section 3 Refunds

All dues and fees of the Academy are non-refundable, except by recommendation of the Development and Finance Committee and approval of the Executive Council.

Article VIII – Indemnification of Officers

Section 1 Right to Indemnification

Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved (including, without limitation, as a witness) in any actual or threatened action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Academy or, that being or having been such a director or officer or an employee of the Academy, he or she is or was serving at the request of an executive officer of the Academy as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an “indemnitee”), whether the basis of a proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as such a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as such a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Academy to the full extent permitted by applicable law, as then in effect, against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts to be paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that no indemnification shall be provided to any such indemnitee if the Academy is prohibited by the nonexclusive provisions of the Washington Business Corporation Act or other applicable law as then in effect from paying such indemnification; and provided, further, that except as provided in Section 2 hereof with respect to proceedings seeking to enforce rights to indemnification, the Academy shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if the proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or ratified by the Executive Board of the Academy. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 1 shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Academy the expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"). Any advancement of expenses shall be made only upon delivery to the Academy of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 1 and (1) upon delivery to the Academy of a written affirmation (hereinafter an "affirmation") by the indemnitee of his or her good faith and belief that such indemnitee has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Academy or (2) upon such determination (hereinafter a "determination") as may be permitted or required by the Washington Business Corporation Act or other applicable law.

Section 2 Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit

If a claim under Section 1 hereof is not paid in full by the Academy within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Academy, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Academy to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part, in any such suit or in a suit brought by the Academy to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. The indemnitee shall be presumed to be entitled to indemnification under this Article upon submission of a written claim (and, in an action brought to enforce a claim for an advancement of expense, where the required undertaking and affirmation or determination have been tendered to or made by the Academy) and thereafter the Academy shall have the burden of proof to overcome the presumption that the indemnitee is so entitled. Neither the failure of the Academy (including its Executive Board, independent legal counsel or its members) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances nor an actual determination by the Academy (including its Executive Board independent legal counsel or its members) that the indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification shall be a defense to the suit or create a presumption that the indemnitee is not so entitled.

Section 3 Nonexclusivity of Rights

The right to indemnification and the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, general or specific action of the Executive Board, contract or otherwise.

Section 4 Insurance, Contracts and Funding

The Academy may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Academy or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Academy would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Washington Business Corporation Act. The Academy may enter into contracts with any director, officer, employee or agent of the Academy in furtherance of the provisions of this Article and may create a trust fund, grant a security interest or use other means (including, without limitation, a letter of credit) to ensure the payment of such amounts as may be necessary to effect indemnification as provided in this Article.

Section 5 Indemnification of Employees and Agents of the Academy

The Academy may, by action of the Executive Board grant rights for indemnification and advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Academy with the same scope and effect as the provisions of this Article with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Academy or pursuant to rights granted pursuant to, or provided by, the Washington Business Corporation Act or otherwise.

Article IX– Severability

Section 1 Severability

Each of the provisions of these Bylaws shall be considered a separate and severable provision so that if any provision is deemed or declared to be invalid or unenforceable, such determination shall have no effect on the validity or enforceability of any of the other provisions.

Section 2 Preemption of Laws

If a State or Federal law makes invalid any of the provisions of these Bylaws, or requires more notice than provided, or creates rights and procedures not provided or inconsistent, the law shall be applied and preempt these Bylaws to that extent, but all other provisions of the Bylaws shall continue in full force and effect.

Article X – Authorization

Section 1 Contracts

The Board may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 2 Loans to the Academy

No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the Academy and no evidences of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the Board. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 3 Loans to Officers

The Academy may not lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a Officer unless approved by the members of at least a majority of the votes represented by all members entitled to vote thereon, excluding the votes of the benefited Officer, or the Board determines that the loan or guarantee benefits the corporation and either approves the specific loan or guarantee or a general plan authorizing loans and guarantees.

Section 4 Checks, Drafts, Etc.

All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Academy shall be signed by such officer or officers, or agent or agents, of the Academy and in such manner as is from time to time determined by resolution of the Board.

Section 5 Deposits

All funds of the Academy not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Academy in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board may select.

Article XI – Amendments

Section 1 These Bylaws may be amended subject to approval of a vote of two-thirds majority of the Executive Board with prior notification of the membership.

Section 2 These Bylaws may be amended subject to unanimous approval vote of the Executive Board without prior notification of the membership.

Section 3 These Bylaws may be amended subject to approval of a vote of two-thirds majority of the active members in attendance at the annual meeting.

The foregoing Bylaws were adopted by the Board of Directors of the Academy on November 1, 2004.
